

I wish to strongly emphasize my support for the Indiana State Law restricting telemarketing calls. Since the law has been in effect, the number of unwelcome calls to our home has decreased greatly.

I would oppose any action that would change the law as it now stands. Please do not prohibit the state's right to enact and enforce the law now written.